From the Deacons: The Runias will be here on Sunday May 4 giving a presentation, so we will be switching their offering to that day.

From the Deacons: On May 11, we have scheduled an offering for Crittenton Center out of Sioux City. Crittenton Center is an emergency placement living environment for homeless children from newborn to 18-years-old. Children are at the center due to abuse, neglect, or abandonment. Many have had their parental rights terminated and have no safe family members, neighbors, or others willing to take care of them. Youth could stay for a few days, a few months, or over a year. Children receive a variety of services while living there, including case management, therapy, on-site education, medical care, and other supportive services. Our offerings will help offset what the state of Iowa is unable to provide for them.
